WEEKLY MIRACLE

This week marks the beginning of a kind of “liturgical detour.” We have been listening to Saint Mark’s Gospel during this liturgical year (Year B). Today we begin to hear a long section from John’s Gospel, starting with the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. This miracle story is a prelude to the Lord’s statements that we will begin hearing in a few weeks, in which Jesus refers to himself as the “bread of life.” Each week we witness a miracle at Mass. We do not see a multiplication of loaves before us. What our eyes of faith allow us to see is the miracle of the transformation of common elements—bread and wine—into the Lord’s Body and Blood. Once we have received the Lord, the multiplication begins, for in the Eucharist we are strengthened to multiply our efforts to feed the poor, shelter the homeless, and bring comfort to the despairing.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Last Wednesday, the greatest pilgrimage in our tradition ended with the feast of Saint James at his shrine in Compostela, Spain. Every year, as many as a hundred thousand persons walk a portion of the medieval way of the pilgrim, earning the right to wear the scallop shell symbol of this journey of faith. In legend, this city on the northern coast of Spain is the final resting place of the apostle, and the full name of the cathedral is “Saint James of the Field of Stars.” There is a tradition that Saint James the Great preached there.

In the Roman Catholic tradition, the pilgrimage, like any procession, is a symbol, life’s journey distilled, a powerful sign of our journey toward a certain goal. The perils of the road, the support of companions, the contemplative slower pace of life, have the potential to transform and renew the pilgrims in ways that last a lifetime. Along the way, the distinctions between rich and poor fall away, and everyone shares humble rustic food and stops for the night in hostels or under the stars. After a long walk, the experience of entering through the great doors into the vast cathedral filled with incense, light, and song is a foretaste of heaven. The pilgrims often say that their whole lives are redirected toward that moment of entry into the heavenly Jerusalem. The most memorable feature of the cathedral is called the botofumeiro, an incense burner on pulleys and chains that sweeps through the cathedral in immense circles, swirling clouds of sweet-smelling incense around the vast nave.

Whether you are a Eucharistic Minister, a lector, an alter server, an usher, a singer, a minister to the homebound, a religious education teacher, and other contributors, your participation helps knit our community together. Collection for Church in Latin America

In two weeks we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and Caribbean, rural terrain and a lack of ministries are obstacles to practicing their faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training catechesis, priestly and religious formations, as well as other programs to help share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

UNBOUND

Bishop Soto launches a new deliverance/inner healing prayer ministry in our diocese at our first diocesan UNBOUND Freedom in Christ Conference, coming to St. John the Baptist Parish (307 Montrose Dr.) in Folsom on August 10th from 6:30 PM-9 PM & August 11th from 9 AM-6:30 PM. Unbound is a ministry of freedom and inner healing that helps to release the power of the gospel into our lives. We all have areas in our lives where we don't experience freedom. This conference will equip you to cooperate with God as He sets you free. At the diocesan Unbound Conference, you will learn how to gain greater freedom from these influences by using the Five Spiritual Keys taught in the Unbound Model. The conference involves times of prayer, insightful teaching, and personal ministry from our ministry teams. For more information and to register, please visit scd.formstack.com/forms/unbound. Registration is $50 in advance online or $65 at the door.
